

Back in 1965, Ted Dowty started Hydraulic Equipment Supermarkets and this, the Dowty gear pump was one of the first products he sold.

50 years later the Dowty pump is now made by Parker but still remains a core product for HES, along with the Turolla gear pump.

Our team of sales engineers understand gear pumps and understand you and your business needs.

For that reason we offer:

- Free technical advice
- Shelves full of stock
- Next day delivery or same day collection
- Easy ordering – online, by phone or by email
- And All the associated products you might need

When it comes to Hydraulics – if you need it – we've got it!
